Foreword

WE, THE EDITORS of the 1956 Kinlani, are grateful for the privilege and honor to edit this yearbook. It has certainly been a pleasure and an experience we will never forget.

We would like to thank those people on our staff, and the faculty for their cooperation and help in making it possible for this annual to be published. We would especially like to thank Mr. Gilbert Corona for the service and encouragement he has given us during the planning of the Kinlani.

This is your book of memories. It will certainly be a lasting memory to us, and we sincerely hope that you will enjoy the 1956 Kinlani as much as we have enjoyed editing it for you.

A better grade and larger size of paper is being used. The pages will be 8½ by 11 inches as compared to the 7½ by 10 inch size of the 1955 Kinlani.

Sixteen additional pages alon

The additional cost of these features is being met by advertising rather than by an increase in cost to the students.

Anything which threatens the independence of an individual, his family, or his business . . . endangers the very principles which made our country great. He is Just Away

You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile,
and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be,
since he lingers there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here,
Think of him still
as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away.
